AMERICA'S GREAT OUTDOORS

A WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON CONSERVATION: GROWING AMERICA'S OUTDOOR HERITAGE AND ECONOMY

MARCH 2, 2012

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, YATES AUDITORIUM

AGENDA

11-12 noon REGISTRATION

12 noon Welcome / Conference Intro

The America's Great Outdoors Initiative: A Foundation for Growth

Renewing Communities: Connecting People to Nearby Lands and Waters

Moderators: Lisa P. Jackson, EPA Administrator

Nancy Sutley, CEQ Chair

Restoring Rivers: Building Resilience for People and Wildlife

Moderators: Ken Salazar, Secretary of the Interior

Jo-Ellen Darcy, Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works)

(Move to breakout rooms)

BREAKOUT SESSIONS: Growing America's Outdoor Heritage and Economy

Expand and explore AGO themes, focusing on how collaborative relationships can improve to help attendees achieve greater success back home and achieve their goals

- Tourism and Outdoor Recreation
- Coastal Conservation
- Hunting-Fishing/Recreational Access
- Large Landscape Conservation
- Urban Open Space
- Rivers Restoration and Recreation
- Youth and Outdoor Education / Let's Move Outside
- The 21st Century Service Conservation Corps, Youth Corps and Veterans Jobs
- Historic and Cultural Preservation and Sacred Tribal Places
- Public Lands Management and Conservation
- National Parks Second Century

(Move back to Main Interior Auditorium)

Conserving Rural Lands: New Models for Working Lands and Wildlife

Moderator: Tom Vilsack, Secretary of Agriculture

5:00pm CLOSING REMARKS

5:30pm ADJOURN